

3 Monadnock St. Boston, Mass.

June 13, 1932

Dear Professor Marks:

Here is the precious M.S.

It is the "Foreword" of which I should be very glad to have two copies - one a carbon, of course.

I am enclosing the one page which is all that I had got copied - more shame for me! I also enclose the translations from Robert Browning.

Yours always gratefully

Alice Howe Blackwell. (over)

P. S. There are some places, especially in the "Letters",
near the end, where there are gaps; the ^{sentences on the} pages do not follow on one after another, but seem to have skipped something.
I am not responsible for this. I am sending them to you just as I received them.

It is really a wonderful & inspiring narrative.
